

OFFERS A STAGE CAREER TO DOZEN PRETTY GIRLS

Mr. Frohman Will Give Contracts to Those Selected by Evening World Readers.

A CHANCE FOR ALL.

With Such a Start, Future of Any Girl With Ability Would Seem Assured.

This is Mr. Frohman's offer to American girls who aspire to stage careers and who have had no opportunity to get a hearing. The offer is made only to those who wish to take up the work seriously.

To each of the twelve pretty girls selected by the readers of The Evening World he will hand a contract for forty weeks' employment on the stage, at a salary of $5 a week (making a total outlay of $2000).

This contract will include a trip to Europe and a chance to appear at a London theatre. If the fair applicant succeeds, she will receive another contract for a two or three year engagement in the Frohman companies.

Six Months' Tuition. Each of the dozen lucky girls who win in The Evening World contests will receive in addition six months' free tuition in singing, dancing and acting, to prepare her for her work.

The conditions of the contest are very simple. Here they are:

The competition will be open for the next three weeks.

During that time all applicants are requested to send their photographs to "Photograph Editor, Evening World, P. O. Box 1354, New York City."

On the back of each photograph must be written the full name and address of the competitor, her height and color of her hair and eyes. None of these details are for publication in case of the applicant's failure.

The Evening World cannot undertake to return any photographs. But those that do not win prizes will be destroyed, and the entire affair regarded as confidential, as far as they are concerned.

Twenty-four in Final Test. At the close of the three weeks' duration of the contest, all photographs will be carefully looked over by a committee of competent judges selected by Mr. Frohman. These judges will select the twenty-four which in their opinion are the most beautiful.

The twenty-four photographs will be printed in The Evening World, and readers will be asked to vote as to which is the prettiest girl of the entire two dozen. The twelve girls receiving the largest number of votes will at once begin their course of training under Mr. Frohman's direction.

The list of successful competitors, as published in The Evening World, must be accepted as final. Any contestant writing direct to Mr. Frohman on the subject will be at once disqualified.

The competition is not open to women who are already on the stage.

"The Dollar Princess" is the production in which the winners will make their debut. This was to have opened in New York next February. But Mr. Frohman has postponed the first performance until next September in order to give the prize winning twelve full time to study their new profession under his direction before making their initial bow to a metropolitan audience.

Women's Tailored Suits Of Exceptional Attractiveness

The correctness of style and the excellence of fabrics are taken for granted—for they are Wanamaker suits.

Add to this the fact that they will be priced tomorrow at ten dollars or more below the figures they would regularly justify—a large saving on such popular-priced suits.

At $17.50—Smartly Tailored Suits of chevron stripes, plain stripes, broadcloths and other smart suitings; mostly made with knee-length coat, single-breasted, seams slashed, finished with rows of buttons, inlaid collar of satin, outlined with braid, small revers; some elaborately trimmed with wide and narrow braid, fastened with two buttons, large revers and turnover close-fitting collar; others slightly cutaway; seams trimmed with taffeta silk.

Another style, half-fitting, hipless coat, bound with satin, large patch pockets, close-fitting sleeves. The coats are lined with satin or taffeta; the skirts are made in various gored and plaited styles, some trimmed with braid to correspond with coat. Special at $17.50.

At $23.75—Suits of unfinished waisted in navy blue, black and gray; coat in new hipless model, hangs perfectly straight from shoulder, vent in back finished with rows of buttons, single-breasted, fastened with five large covered buttons, notched collar, close-fitting sleeves with turned-back cuffs, large patch pockets; gored skirt buttoned down front. Second floor, Old Building.

Black Silk Waists

Two fine models, one of taffeta, the other of messaline silk, both decidedly effective in cut and trimmings, will appeal to women who want practical waists that show smart style and a touch of dressiness. We have also a particularly pretty model of dotted net over China silk.

At $6.50—Waists of black taffeta silk, yoke of stitched faggoting, finished in front with straps, plaited back, fitted sleeve and stitched cuffs, open front.

At $7.75—Waists of Messaline silk, yoke of Valenciennes lace, silk beading and medallions, plaited below, finished with rows of Valenciennes insertions, plaited lace-trimmed back, trimmed sleeves.

At $10—Waists of black silk, dotted net, yoke of Valenciennes lace, open back, collar finished with silk, sleeves finished with lace and insertion. Third floor, Old Building.

In the ECONOMY BASEMENT: At $5—Waists of satin, in new shades; pointed yoke of plaits and French knots, new sleeve.

Thanksgiving APRONS

Fresh, pretty sorts for the housekeeper who wants to superintend the preparation of the Thanksgiving dinner, as well as for the maid and for the waitress. And very excellent values:

At 25c—White lawn, with bib and bretelles, trimmed with embroidery or hemstitching, or plaits. Others with bib and straps. Or band aprons, with wide plaits, plain or hemstitched.

At 45c—Large, full-sized lawn aprons, bib and bretelles, with hemstitched hem or plaits; others with embroidery or Gibson revers hemstitched.

At 90c—Lawn Princess Apron, bib and ruffle over shoulder, finely plaited. Another style has Gibson revers, trimmed with fine embroidery.

Maid's and Waitresses' Caps, 4c to 35c. Imported Caps, 50c to 85c. Third floor, Old Building.

In the ECONOMY BASEMENT: Cover-All Aprons, of Amoskeag gingham, navy blue and white check, 25c.

Thanksgiving Candies

Candies for the dinner table, candies for the games afterwards, candies to eat all Thanksgiving Day long in fact—all delicious bits of goodness, of many different sorts, but of one degree of pureness and freshness. You'll need some of these tomorrow:

About That Thanksgiving Turkey

WE make you this plain promise which we expect to have you take at its exact face value and to which we expect you to hold us:

The lowest market prices for turkeys, chickens, geese and ducks to-morrow will be found at the Siegel Cooper Pure Food Store

But in accepting this promise you must count quality. You may not know that there are several different grades of turkey—some of them we won't have in the store at all. Don't make the mistake of ruining your dinner by taking a long-dead, cold-storage turkey or an out-of-condition "fresh turkey" because the price is low. Several carloads of that sort were offered us last week. We refused them—but they will doubtless be on sale elsewhere.

Every bird we sell will be fresh-killed, dry-picked and tender. We guarantee it—as well as that, the price will be the lowest for which that kind of turkey can be bought.

We offer a car-load of 20c lb. such turkeys to-morrow at

A Truly Sensational Sale of Trimmed Hats

Especially Fur Hats, the Present Raging Favorites

MONTH in and month out, for season after season, and year after year, we have continued to give New York the best hats at $5 that the price could buy anywhere. There has never been a time in a half-dozen past years when anything like the value and variety shown here at that price could be seen anywhere else.

But To-Morrow's $5 Is By Far The Best We Have Ever Made.

Among a thousand other models it includes these, offered in the face of a rising market in furs and the sharpest demand for these very styles:

"Marie Louise" Hats made entirely of black fur, trimmed with handsome roses and foliage. White Fur Hats imitation of white fox, trimmed with fancy feather. Fur Turbans Trimmed with imitation of paradise feathers. Black Fur Turbans Trimmed with handsome French silk and velvet dahlias.

Choice of all these (and more) at $5. Not one that wouldn't sell at $10 or more in any other store in the United States. (Siegel Cooper Store, Second Floor, Front.)
